A REQUEST.

Our friends will please send us the latest election returns.

TO THE CONSERVATIVES OF RALEIGH.

Few of our readers outside of Raleigh, will read this issue before the close of the polls to-day. We take it that many of them will be on the election ground early, and will remain there to labor for our cause till the close of the polls.

This article is addressed chiefly to the voters in the city. We desire to make a last appeal to them, and trust it will not go unheeded.

The city of Raleigh has exhibited an apathy in this crisis which, to say the least, is unworthy of the character of its leading citizens and which has had a depressing effect throughout the State.

As the capital of North Carolina, this city should have set an example worthy of being followed and emulated in every city and village in the State. A spirit of activity and zeal should have been diffused from here, as the central point until it had reached every county and permeated every township.

Our public men having shrunk from the discharge of their duty, it remains to be seen whether the voters of the city will do theirs. It remains to be seen whether the indifference of those to whom the people have looked for counsel and for guidance, has paralyzed the popular heart and palsied the efforts of the honest masses of our party!

Citizens of Raleigh! the eyes of the people of North Carolina are upon you! When this day's sun goes down, will the record show that you too have to answer for the sin of criminal non-feasance of a great public duty?

Is there a solitary opponent of Grant's Administration who will permit this election to pass away without protesting, by his ballot, against the crimes and enormities which Radicalism has inflicted upon the whole country, and especially upon the South?

Is there a single Conservative in our midst who, because he may think there is no chance to elect Greeley, will refuse to vote against Grant?

Can any one after the election, stifle the reproaches of his conscience for such a course of folly by an excuse so paltry and so contemptible?

A FULL CONSERVATIVE VOTE IN THIS CITY TO-DAY MAY DECIDE THE ELECTION IN NORTH CAROLINA IN FAVOR OF GREELEY AND BROWN.

If our friends are apathetic so are the Radicals. If there will be a falling off of our vote in many Counties, the Radicals will also lose. To what extent the vote for either party will be diminished, compared with the August result, no one can tell.

In the State of Indiana where there were over three hundred and seventy thousand votes polled, one of the candidates for Congress for the State at large was elected by only one hundred and sixty-two votes.

THE CITY OF RALEIGH MAY ELECT OR DEFEAT HORACE

GREELEY THIS DAY!

How important it is, then, that we poll every vote!

Besides, it is the imperative duty of every voter in this City, who is not a Radical at heart, to come out this day, and vote down Grant's Administration!

The man who refuses to stand by the nominees of the National Democratic party is not loyal to party organization.

If every Conservative voter in the State will come out and vote for our nominee, we are sure of a grand and overwhelming victory. But in order to win, every vote should be polled!

People of Raleigh, give one day to your country!

Will you stay from the polls, and thus sanction Radical oppression?

The Democrat or Liberal Republican who fails to vote to-day gives aid and comfort to the Radical party.

WE NEED EVERY VOTE. IT WILL BE A DISGRACE IF NORTH CAROLINA SHOULD VOTE FOR GRANT.

If the State is lost, it will be on account of shameful negligence.

Conservatives of Raleigh! BE MEN TO-DAY! STAND AT YOUR POSTS OF DUTY. EVERY VOTE COUNTS. IT IS SHAMEFUL TO DESERT THE STANDARD OF YOUR PARTY BECAUSE THE SKIES ARE NOT ALTOGETHER PROPITIOUS.

Whether Greeley is elected or defeated, you must discharge your duty to the country by voting against Grant!

THE SANCTITY OF THE BALLOT.

The shameful frauds practiced by the Radicals in the State elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana should arouse the indignation of every honest voter in the land.

Under the Grant manipulators every species of trick and rascality—the corrupt system of stuffing ballot boxes—the force of importing negro voters from Kentucky and Virginia—the crime of voting hired repeaters from New York and elsewhere—were carried out so successfully and unblushingly that it is impossible to form any idea of the extent of the rascality.

Under such a system of frauds, elections become a farce, and the purity of the ballot a dream of the past.

Can Republican institutions exist in the midst of so much corruption? Are the liberties of the people in no danger when the popular voice is stifled and the popular will so shamefully defeated?

There can be no sanctity of the ballot so long as the Radicals are in power.

If the American people are true to themselves, they will hurl Grant and his minions this day from the high places they disgrace.

THE MEETING AT CONCORD.

Our special telegram Saturday gave an account of the grand Greeley and Brown meeting at that place.

The success of the affair is due chiefly to the individual efforts of Paul B. Means, Esq., the energetic Chairman of the County Executive Committee of Cabarrus.

We have received an account of the meeting for publication, but it is too late to publish in time. Jarvis made a powerful speech, and Maj. Robbins aroused the crowd to a high state of enthusiasm. Our correspondent states there were fully two thousand persons present.

WHAT THE ELECTION OF GRANT MEANS.

The election of Grant means a sanction, by the popular voice, of all the dishonesty of his Administration.

It means a sanction of the Carpet-bag misrule at the South.

It means a sanction of the acts of Grants officials—his Revenue collectors Post masters, Marshals and Deputy Marshals.

It means a sanction of the unjust and hostile legislation of Congress.

It means a sanction of bayonet rule and military laws.

It means the sanction of the oppression and ruin of the South.

IT MEANS THE SANCTION OF IMPERIALISM.

The Democrat or Liberal Republican who this day refuses to vote for Horace Greeley, aids in re-electing President Grant.

The Democrat or Liberal Republican who fails this day, to vote against Grant, assists in perpetuating the Radical policy upon the nation.

The Democrat or Liberal Republican who stays at home this day by his silence endorses the policy of hate and sectional ill-will.

CONSERVATIVES OF RALEIGH, WHICH ONE OF YOU WILL THIS DAY FAIL TO VOTE FOR HORACE GREELEY?

Conservatives of Raleigh, do your duty! Be at the polls early. Give a unanimous vote to the Democratic nominees.

LET NO CONSERVATIVE IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH FAIL TO CAST HIS VOTE FOR HORACE GREELEY AND B. GRANT BROWN.

THANKSGIVING AND PEACE.

The Washington Patriot thus concludes a beautiful editorial on the subject of thanksgiving and peace:

"Peace! You cannot banish it if you refuse to submit to the irreconcilables. Peace! It is our right as well as our necessity—it is the right of our women and our children—it is the right of our suffering soldiers and our injured industries. The people of graves on the wind-swept hillsides demand Peace, that they may be soiled and decorated anew—the widows and orphans who cling to the skirts of our bounty cry piteously for it with imploring hands. The glories of our common Past, the promises of our common Future, demand Peace—woe be to those who prevent it!"

Who is it that dares to obstruct the career of these reconciled peoples and their determination to have Peace! Who are they that dare lay the sword of strife and disunion in the nuptial bed of Peace and Thanksgiving? They that take the sword shall perish by the sword. Let the politicians beware! A patient people, a long-suffering people, slow to anger, lenient, forgiving, we have yet set our hearts steadfastly upon the design of Peace; we will have peace in order to have our Thanksgiving; and none know so well as those who seek to obstruct us in our plans of reconciliation that we can launch, if we please, all the terrors of the storm and all the furies of the whirlwind. Fraud, force, falsehood—these may work temporary obstruction, but they will surely recoil upon their inventors and demolish them. The voice of the people is awake for Peace, and the voice of the people is the voice of God, in the breath of whose nostrils the infidel perishes. Let the plotters and the politicians beware!

Let no man who goes to the polls on November 5th vote until he has pondered in his own mind these truths, thus slightly and briefly outlined. Let no man vote until he has permitted the influences and privileges of the season to invade him. Let no man cast his ballot until he has asked himself which one of the two candidates means Peace, and reconciliation, and Charity, and Thanksgiving."

GEORGE H. PENDLETON, the great Democratic leader of the West, says there is no sacrifice of principle for Democrats to support Greeley.

A VOTE for Greeley is a vote for reform and purification—a vote for Grant is a vote for the endorsement of official corruption, and malfeasance in office.

GREELEY COMES BOILING out the olive branch—Grant comes with the sword and the bayonet.

GREELEY AND RECONCILIATION—Grant and misgovernment—which will you choose?

WILL THE STAY-at-home party defeat Greeley this day, by allowing the election to go by default?

HORACE GREELEY, if elected, will lift the bayonets from the throats of the Southern people.

THE VOTE of North Carolina this day may save Greeley's election.

YOU HAVE but one choice—Greeley or Grant.

LET THERE be no shirking on election day.

GRANTISM MEANS DESPOTISM.

VOTE AGAINST GRANT TO-DAY.

ATTACKED BY A BEAR.

A black bear, belonging to Mr. L. C. Campbell, of the Wakeman House, Bombay Hook, Del., succeeded some days since in getting loose, since which time it has been roaming about the country. One day last week, a little daughter of John F. Goldsborough, Esq., whilst on her way to school, was attracted by the bear, and in her fright threw a basket containing her dinner at the animal. The bear, scenting the food, paused to make a meal of it, which enabled the little girl to make her escape by flight. A negro man was next attacked, but having a large club he succeeded in keeping him at bay until the arrival of assistance, when the animal fled. It is still at large.—Wilmington Gazette.

"Enquirer" writes to the London Standard alleging that the Vienna exposition "is a scheme on the grand scale to appropriate the genius of the world without remuneration," and claiming that the protection offered to inventors is delusive. The Standard believes the complaint exaggerated, but is confident that the directors of the exposition will take measures to remove the grounds of it.

Some months ago there was a paragraph flying about through the newspapers to the effect that the German government was trying to discourage emigration to America and interposing all the obstacles possible. From information received at the State Department it appears that the story is untrue in every particular. The German government has done nothing and said nothing to prevent emigration.

THE U. S. Court will commence at Asheville on the 7th inst.—Thursday.
A new daily paper is to be started in Newbern, to be called the Daily Liberal.
THE Superior Court for Mecklenburg county will convene on the third Monday.
THE Citizen claims the honor for Buncombe, as the champion western county for tobacco.
THE local Editor of the Asheville Citizen has been caned with a very nice ivory headed stick.
THE Statesville Intelligencer says that a new factory will go into operation there shortly.
THEY HOPPED at Rocky Mount last night. Thanks for an invitation, but couldn't go.
THE Tarboro Enquirer says that late frosts have injured the cotton crop of Edgecombe.

TOM PAINE has been arrested on the charge of burning the barn of J. J. Cranch, of Alexander county.
Mrs. Julia Albert, 82 years of age, was burned to death in her room at Hoboken, New Jersey, Friday morning.
THE 15th volume of that true and sterling paper, the Newbern Journal of Commerce, commenced on Saturday.

ROBERT PRITCHARD, formerly of Warren county, was married on the 17th inst., to Miss Mollie Mumford, of Monroe, Tenn.
DAVID NIXON, a member of Giblem Lodge of colored Masons, died in Wilmington on Friday. He was buried with Masonic honors Sunday evening.
T. M. ARGO and W. S. Pearson, Radical canvassers, after extensive advertising and large handbills, had three persons to hear them at Taylorsville—2 white men and 1 negro.

THE Statesville Intelligencer says that the handsome lady at the Charlotte Fair was from Statesville. Town pride, Brother Jones, we suspect.
GEN. T. L. CLINGMAN replied to Congressmen C. L. Cobb at Asheville last Tuesday. The Citizen says every one of Cobb's arguments was completely demolished.

Gov. CALDWELL has appointed a special term of the Court for Craven county, for the trial of civil and criminal cases. No Grand Jury will be drawn. Tourgeur will preside.

Mr. Froude, on the conclusion of his course of lectures in Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, Friday night, was honored with a torchlight procession and an address by the students.

THE Tarboro Enquirer says that a colored man, a few days ago at Rocky Mount, in attempting to jump on the train while in motion, missed the platform and fell upon the track. The result was the loss of a hand.

THE Asheville Citizen compliments Mr. O. D. Dupre, of this city, for his efforts in the campaign, Mr. Dupre, as one of the Assistant Electors, has been doing good service, and as made an excellent reputation.

THE Tarboro Enquirer is mistaken as to the Assignee's sale. That paper informed that the sale of C. Dewey assignee, &c., will not take place at Tarboro on the 25th, but Saturday the 23rd. The time has been changed to the 23rd.

THE Asheville Citizen having refused the use of its columns to T. D. Carter, to continue his articles on "Railroad Failures," Mr. Carter announces that he has made arrangements to commence at once the publication of a new paper at Asheville, to be called The Empirist.

E. R. STAMPS, Esq., the gallant unmarried young Editor of the Tarboro Enquirer, says that among the many attractions at the Charlotte Fair, and they were truly many, in the way of fair ladies, the cynosure of every eye was the beautiful and highly accomplished Miss Jeannie Patterson, so justly celebrated for her histrionic readings.

THE Tarboro Enquirer tells how a bogus Conductor was stopped in his career on the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road.
On the return excursion train from the Weldon Fair on Thursday, a jovial devotee of Bacchus aspired to play conductor and actually collected a great many tickets. His career, however, was cut short by the summary manner in which Capt. Browning decapitated the napper, and the last that was seen of him was on the ground deprived of the privilege of riding.

THE Tournament at Wilmington, on the 15th inst., during the Fair, bids fair to be a grand thing, varying from the tame lance thrust to a real military exercise. The regulation cavalry sabre is to be used, and five cuts, points, &c., made at each ride. In addition to the delectable pleasure of laying their trophies at some fair lady's feet, the successful knights gain also more substantial prizes in the way of a handsome gold watch to the first, a fine saddle to the second, and a pair of silver spurs to the best rider. Our gallants should see that Edgcomb's fair daughters have champions in the lists.—Enquirer.

REV. GEORGE PATTERSON has returned to Wilmington from his Northern trip.
THE two robbers, J. L. Smith and Wm. Williams, have been safely lodged in Wilmington jail.

THE Wilmington Journal says the "Cotton picker" to be on exhibition at the Wilmington Fair, will do the work of 30 hands.

Geo. W. DILL, the agent of the New York and Newbern Steamship Co., has been on a visit to New York to secure more steamers in order to meet the increasing demand of shippers from Newbern.

A GREELEY and Brown poll, 74 feet long, from which floated a handsome flag, was raised on the public square at Statesville last week amid the cheers of a large crowd, as we learn from the Statesville Intelligencer.

THE Editor of the Wadesboro Argus is hard on the cancer doctor. Hear him: One Charles Yardley tells a yarn about a yard and a half long of how he cured cancer with his wild tea. People up here are not as green as his tea, and as for our part we are tea totallers, and don't want any "cancer yard."

THE Asheville Citizen contains the account of a sad accident that befell Mr. R. W. Porter, a young gentleman of high standing in that community, who fell from the stage about five miles from the town en route to Old Fort, and from the effects of which he died on Tuesday last. He was buried with Masonic honors on Wednesday.

THE Wilmington Journal says that an old colored woman, by the name of Jane Wright, dropped dead in the yard of her residence, on Brunswick, between Second and Third streets, about daylight yesterday morning. Coroner Howlett was notified and a jury of inquest was empaneled, when the verdict was returned that she came to her death from heart disease.

THE Statesville Intelligencer tells how a very bashful young man from Statesville in attendance at the Charlotte Fair got things a little mixed. He was one day standing in Floral Hall conversing with a lady of his acquaintance, when another young gentleman and lady walked up. The lady first mentioned introduced our friend to them, when he made a low bow to the gentleman and grasped the lady warmly by the hand.

SPEAKING of the horse malady, the Charlotte Observer says a new tirade of names has been thrown into our language by the appearance of the strange horse malady which is spreading so swiftly and with such destruction over the land. Hippoburnia, hippozymosis, epizootis, hippo-malaria, ephippia, typhoid-laryngitis, equine influenza, and a number of other equally classical and jaw-breaking names are now in vogue. "Blind Staggers" is about the plain English of it all.

THE London papers have recently been discussing through their correspondents, the cure of hydrophobia. One physician writes emphatically that no cure is known. An Indian official says that he has cured the most venomous snake bite "by simply cauterizing the punctures with his knife, heaping a charge of powder from his flask, and blowing it up in each case. In Indianapolis, United States, a few days ago, the heart of a mad dog which had bitten a child was taken out and boiled, and the broth given to the child as a preventive.

THE Wilmington Star of Saturday says: "We were shown yesterday a very handsome pulpit, with circular steps to correspond, just completed for the Baptist church in Fayetteville. The pulpit is made of our native curly pine, trimmed with black walnut. It is of Octagon style, with double panels of Gothic architecture. All the work was done by hand except the base and caps of the columns. Mr. John Sholar, of this city, executed the work with his own hands, and we congratulate our Baptist friends in Fayetteville on the fact that their church will be adorned by as handsome a pulpit as can be found anywhere."

THE Wilmington Star says that "a white man by the name of Job Graves, well known about the oyster saloon of this city, where he was frequently employed in the capacity of an 'oyster butcher,' died on yesterday in a house on Chesnut, between Front and Water streets, in rather indigent circumstances, and after a very brief illness, his death being superinduced by intemperance and exposure. We learn that deceased served through the war in a company from New Orleans, known as the 'Louisiana Tigers,' with whom he came to this State. He is said to have come from a good family in New Orleans and it may be a source of melancholy satisfaction to them to know where he 'sleeps his last sleep.'"

THE Newbern Journal of Commerce says: The Fall Term of the U. S. Court, has been in session this week. His Honor Judge Brooks presiding. The Judge's charge to the Grand Jury was fair, impartial and able—one to which no one of any shade of political opinions could take exceptions. The business before the court was rapidly disposed of. Some of the cases were transferred to the Western Court, others were tried, and a few continued. The petit jury was discharged Thursday afternoon, and the Grand Jury on Friday. Judge Brooks goes from Newbern to Wilmington to hold court for the Cape Fear District, but owing to the Presidential election the session of that court will not commence till Wednesday. This will give lawyers, jurors, witnesses and all others having business in that court an opportunity to remain at their homes and vote on Tuesday.

THE Statesville Intelligencer gives the following account of the arrest of Capt. Baxter, of Gaston, an old gentleman of sixty five, who, on some flimsy pretext, was dragged from court to court, with out even being able to get a trial: "He has been confined eleven months in jail, and is now under bond for his appearance. He has been knocked about from pillar to post at great cost to himself, to say nothing of detention from labor, and is to-day no nearer a trial than when first arrested. These facts we have from Baxter himself, who assures us that there are scores of others in the same condition here. These are innocent men, and are virtually slaves, and must come or go at the bidding of this inquisition called a court of justice! What mockery! Did ever a free people bear such oppression so patiently? and how much longer will they bear it before they hurl their oppressors from power?"

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

SHAMEFUL ASSERTIONS.—The Tarboro Enquirer says, in the Radical howl now there last Tuesday, in which Hon. Thomas Settle and others officiated, Mr. Settle said that in his district negroes were not allowed to sit on juries, and that Republican meetings were broken up by Democrats throwing stones, eggs, &c. These false assertions, together with the general incendiary character of his speech, show to what depths even a Supreme Court Judge can descend for party purposes.

The New Bern Times, Radical, thus speaks of the effort of Maj. P. F. Duffy, Editor of the Greensboro Patriot: "The next speaker was our friend Duffy, of the Greensboro Patriot, who made a splendid speech in the wrong cause. Duffy is a natural orator, and made one of the best speeches we ever heard, on the wrong side. He is evidently a man of culture and brain, and a carpet-bagger from Wisconsin. He was followed by Maj. John Hughes, who did himself full justice in short metre, and he did well in the time allowed him."

Death of Mrs. Greeley. The heart of Horace Greeley is as large as his brain; and every man with a ray of manhood in his nature—be he friend or foe—will give his deep sympathy to the unequalled blow that has now stricken him so sorely.

Mrs. Greeley died after a long and lingering illness, and the womanly tenderness of the husband's heart will be more deeply wrong because of his enforced absence from her side of late, even when on his glorious mission of Reconciliation and Peace. Mrs. Greeley's disease was consumption; and flying from that dread scourge, she passed last winter in Nassau. To the joyful surprise of her friends the climate gave her renewed life; but even their hopes had not expected it to bear her up so long. Still, a blow like this can never be broken to the husband of a lifetime, and to the daughters who were so worthy stays to her declining years. There is a sorrow too holy and too pure for the prying eyes of a sensation loving public. Public target as he is, we sincerely hope that Mr. Greeley's name may be spared the personal abuse of a canvass for his few last days; and that the veil may not be torn by rude hands from the affliction of those, whose only sin—in the eyes of his enemies—is that they are the children of the brave and noble man whose virtues make him more vulnerable to the shafts of sorrow.—Mobile Register.

A STATE INSTITUTION

SAFE, CONSERVATIVE, ENERGETIC.

THE

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA,

FOR SALE.

One extra fine TROTTER SULKY weight 72 lbs., made by Coffey.

AFTER TENNYSON.

Really good parodies are rather rare but several decidedly clever ones appear in the little volume entitled "Fly Leaves." Here is another from the same brochure, which the readers of Tennyson will recognize as an amusing imitation of "The Brook."

WANDERERS.
As over the hill we roamed at will,
My dog and I together,
We marked a chase, by two bright bays,
Slow-moving along the heather.

Two boys arch-necked with tails erect
And gold upon their blunders;
And by their side an ass I spied;
It was a travelling tinker's.

The chase went by, nor aught cared I;
Such things are not in my way;
I turned me to the tinker, who
Was loading down a by-way.

I asked him where he lived—a stare
Was all I got in answer;
As on he trudged, I rightly judged
The stare said, "Where I can, sir."

I asked him if he'd take a whiff
Of "hacco," he acceded;
He grew communicative too
(A pipe was all he needed).

Till of the tinker's life I think
I knew as much as he did;
"Holler down by thorp and town;
For any job I'm willing."

Take here and there a dusty brown,
And here and there a shining;
"I deal in every ware in turn,
I've rings for budding lily."

That sparkled like those eyes of her'n;
I've liquor for the valet.

"I steal from th' parson's strawberry plot,
I hide by th' squallid cow's;
I teach the sweet young housemaids what's
The art of trapping lovers."

"I've set, I've sighted, I've gloomed, I've Glanced at the swallows,
That through the window slid, and danced
(Quite happy) round the gallows."

"But out again I come, and show
My face, nor care a silver;
For trades are brisk and trades are slow,
But mine goes on forever."

Thus on he prattled like a babbling brook,
Then I, "The sun has slipped behind the hill,
And my aunt Vivian dines at half past six."

So in all haste we parted; I to half noon
That chickens had been missed at Syllabub
Farm.
